

Bruce Mulford- Member of the Board

As a founding board member of the Ravitz Family Foundation, Bruce Mulford has been involved with the organization since its inception. He worked tirelessly with the Ravitz family and legal counsel, in 1995, to file the foundation's applications to the state of New Jersey and the IRS for recognition as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.

"Having personally experienced a family tragedy," reflected Mulford. "I understand more than some, the necessity for support and support services in times of need. The ability to provide some assistance to other children and families in need is, as they say, 'Priceless'."

As he considers his service on the foundation's board as one of the most important things he does, Mulford's financial and tax compliance background complements the varied talents of the other board members perfectly. A licensed CPA in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, Bruce is a member of the American Institute of CPAs, New Jersey Society of CPAs, and Pennsylvania Institute of CPAs. He has earned the AICPA's Accredited Business Valuation (ABV) designation and the Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF) credential.

"My relationship with the Ravitz family dates back long before the foundation," said Mulford. "I was lucky enough to spark a business relationship with them in 1980, providing accounting and income tax services. While helping to create the foundation, I was honored with an invitation to become one of the initial board members."

A native of Merchantville, NJ, Bruce is a graduate of Rutgers University-Camden. He is a shareholder in the Cherry Hill accounting firm of Alloy, Silverstein, Shapiro, Adams, Mulford, Cicalese, Wilson & Co., and the payroll service firm of Abacus Payroll, Inc. Drawing on over 35 years experience with a diverse clientele and an emphasis on closely held businesses and professional practices. Mulford provides a broad range of accounting and tax services to the firm's clients.

Bruce, a dedicated husband and father of three grown children, is a resident of Cherry Hill. Over the years, he has served on the Township Ethics Board, the board of the Cherry Hill Soccer Club, and as treasurer of the Greenbriar Heart Day campaign. Mulford has also contributed his time as a Boy Scout leader, a boy's soccer coach, has lent his financial expertise to the Parent-Teachers Association, and participated in the neighborhood Crime Watch Program. He is an active supporter of the local chapter of the American Heart Association and is an experienced sail and power boater.
