Dear Friends:

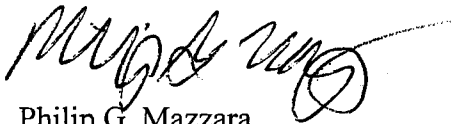

Thomas Jefferson University gratefully acknowledges your organization's contribution of $1,900.00. As requested, this gift will be directed to the Prostate and Urological Cancer Research Fund. Your partnership with and investment in Jefferson is truly appreciated.

The mission of Thomas Jefferson University is to provide outstanding education for the clinicians of tomorrow, train scientists who will advance the process of discovery, and provide compassionate, leading-edge medical care to patients throughout their lives.

Your generosity makes it possible for our university to define the future of clinical care and produce the finest doctors, nurses, therapists, researchers, and other health professionals.

From all of those who will eventually benefit from the generosity of your organization, thank you.

Sincerely,

Philip G. Mazzara
Senior Vice President
